Racial and Social Injustice

WHEREAS, Instances of racism and anti-Blackness continue to exist in the Nation and in within communities.

WHEREAS, (Additional Wheras can be added by the Board here)

THEREFORE, LET IT BE RESOLVED, that Fullerton School District stands firmly in solidarity with the Black community

THEREFORE, LET IT BE RESOLVED (Additonal Therefore's can be added by the Board here)

THEREFORE, LET IT BE RESOLVED, the Board Supports the FSD Listening and Responding Tour with our partners from CSEA, FETA, FESMA, PTA, DELAC, and Champions for Learning along and are committed to listening to the diverse voices from our Fullerton School community and responding to those voices.

THEREFORE, LET IT BE RESOLVED, By listening and responding to the voices within our Fullerton school communities, we will be equipped to understand the ways in which our students, parents and staff, of diverse backgrounds, have experienced the impact of the National events as it relates to their own local experiences. With this understanding, we can elevate our responsiveness to our Fullerton school community, advance our educational system for students, and better engage parents and staff.
