PBS KIDS TALK ABOUT

Race & Racism

Hosted by inaugural National Youth Poet Laureate, Amanda Gorman, this half-hour program features authentic conversations between real children and their parents and includes content from DANIEL TIGER'S NEIGHBORHOOD, ARTHUR, and XAVIER RIDDLE AND THE SECRET MUSEUM. The show looks at race and racial justice-related topics in an age-appropriate way and offers viewers ideas to build on as they continue these important conversations at home.

CRT March News

A new month brings new opportunities for awareness, learning and, recognition!

This month we continue to recognize our broad and diverse history. We include resources for Women's History Month, International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination, and Cesar Chavez Day. Please link to the resources and use them to support your planning.

Women's History Month Resources

Visit this linked slide resource to learn about many brilliant women in various fields.

Read Across America Day

This is a linked weeklong plan to celebrate reading and literacy with themed read alouds.

Cesar Chavez Day Resources

This slide link provides videos, read alouds, and lesson links in honor of Cesar Chavez.

CRT Spotlight

Here are some highlights of what is happening across our sites.

Pac Drive hosted a visit with representatives from Ed Services as well as a Board Member. Participants virtually visited 3 classrooms, including a classroom for the Dual Language Academy. cont.

During the visit, participants observed and contributed to lessons on Jazz, Underground Railroad Quilt Codes, as well as a lesson focussed on inclusion coinciding of their school's Kindness Week. ❤️

Baba the Storyteller will be presenting at Parks this week. Baba is a "griot", trained in the West African storytelling craft, Jaliyaa. He brings a unique program of music and stories similar in messaging style to Aesop's fables.

Welcome

One of the goals of education is not simply to fill students with facts and information but to help them learn how to learn.
